PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEASIDE VACATIONS' "VACATION WITH A PURPOSE" CAMPAIGN BENEFITS HAITI VICTIMS

Seaside Vacations is joining global efforts to assist earthquake victims by promoting our "Vacation with a Purpose" campaign.

KITTY HAWK, NC (January 18, 2010) — Seaside Vacations, a leading vacation rental company located on the Outer Banks of North Carolina, is using their "Vacation with a Purpose" program to support recovery and relief efforts in Haiti. They are encouraging employees, homeowners and guests to join their mission by participating in the program.

Seaside Vacations guests can make a difference just by booking an Outer Banks vacation. From January 18, 2010 - January 22, 2010 Seaside Vacations will donate a portion of its revenue to organizations supporting disaster relief efforts in Haiti. By booking an Outer Banks vacation with Seaside, guests will be helping disaster victims rebuild their lives and their communities.

"I am very pleased at the level of support from our employees, guests and homeowners to participate in our 'Vacation with a Purpose' program. The devastation in Haiti has impacted the entire world. Whether you have personal connections to Haiti or you are affected because you believe that we are all members of a universal family, it is impossible not to be deeply saddened by this tragedy," says Gordon Jones, President of Seaside Vacations and Coldwell Banker Seaside Realty.
