

Contact: Adam Norko
Seaside Vacations
Tel.: 252.255.4964
E-mail: Adam@SeasideRealty.com

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEASIDE VACATIONS LISTS THE TOP 10 REASONS TO VISIT THE OUTER BANKS IN THE OFF SEASON

Crisp mornings, pleasant days and gentle night breezes...all at a much slower pace. Welcome to the off season on the Outer Banks.

KITTY HAWK, NC, (August 27, 2010) – Seaside Vacations, a leading vacation rental company located on the Outer Banks of North Carolina, lists the top 10 reasons to visit the Outer Banks during the off season.

Come enjoy the beach all over again this fall with everything you love about the Outer Banks – warm sunny days, refreshing ocean waters, fine dining, natural treasures, historic sites, local attractions – with less crowds. The weather continues to stay warm long into September and October and so while the beach beckons, what better place to spend some time than on the Outer Banks of North Carolina.

We've compiled a list of 10 great reasons to visit the Outer Banks in the off season. - everything from our savory fresh-caught seafood to cozy nights by warm fireplaces. While everyone else is paying top dollar to stay during the summer months, you'll be soaking in the relaxation, solitude and the satisfaction of a fabulous getaway...at a great bargain.

10. Computer? Check. Notes? Check. Brainstorming Sessions in the Sand? Amazing.

Great meetings are about more than what goes on inside the conference room. The Outer Banks have the uncanny power to clear the mind and rejuvenate the spirit, paving the way to productive meetings. Our serene setting allows meeting participants to focus their minds and unlock their creativity, ensuring guilt-free breakout sessions on our picturesque beaches. Discover Outer Banks meetings.

9. No Reservations Required

Well-known for our fresh, locally-caught seafood, you'll be delighted by the wide-ranging offering of culinary delights in unique settings – even during the off season. Outer Banks restaurants serve everything from Italian standards, to Southwestern and French cuisine. And the best thing about our off season dining experience? No reservations. No more 45-minute waits. And still just as many delectable choices.

8. Flip Flops Welcome Year Round

No matter the time of year, you'll find that it is always a great time to be on the Outer Banks. The Outer Banks typically has mild weather year-round with the ocean waters staying warm through November and then warming up again in May. The weather in the fall is ideal with warm days and cool evenings. The ocean water is still warm from the summer months - and not too cool for swimming until almost Thanksgiving.

7. Adventure, History, Culture...and More

From kayaking, hang-gliding and wild horses to our famed lighthouses and boutique shopping, there is still plenty of fun to be had in the off season with numerous Outer Banks attractions and activities. The world-class surfing on the Outer Banks reaches its peak in the fall and the fishing is also at its best with a typical Outer Banks fall morning displaying a gorgeous sunrise silhouetting a shoreline dotted by surfcasting fishing enthusiasts.

6. 'Tis the Season

The holiday season on the Outer Banks is something to behold! Our barrier island comes alive with festive Outer Banks events that set the stage for fun family reconnecting. From concerts and festivals to art shows and open houses...the holiday cheer abounds!

5. Nights in Rodanthe, Anyone?

Why not leave the family behind...and take some time to rekindle the romance (the sitting-snug-by-a-crackling-fire kind). From long walks by the ocean to brilliant sunsets over the sound, you'll discover that the romance is all around.

4. A Family Affair

Off season on the Outer Banks is the perfect setting for fun family reconnecting. The vast stretches of empty shoreline, the crashing of the waves, the long walks in the refreshing ocean breezes, all the seashells you can carry and the serene natural beauty—this picturesque scene is staged just for you.

And don't forget the other members of your family! The off season is the perfect time of year to bring your furry friends for a frolic on the beach in a pet-friendly rental on the Outer Banks!

3. Fully Stocked

So maybe you won't be donning a bathing suit and lounging on a chaise the way you might under the hot summer sun. If the weather isn't picture perfect, no matter. Most Seaside Vacations vacation rental homes come stocked with everything you'll need (and more) to have just as much fun inside as outside. From board games and DVDs, to cozy fireplaces and warm relaxing hot tubs...you'll find that you may never need to leave.

2. Out of Season Vacations = Out of Your Mind Prices

One of the biggest draws for off-season visitors is the amazing deals they can find on an Outer Banks vacation rental. An impressive eight-bedroom oceanfront house that rents for $10,050 a week in July rents for $2,815 a week in November. And a five-bedroom home drops from $3,720 to $825!

1. Our Pristine Natural Beauty

Spectacular sunrises over the Atlantic. Radiant golden sunsets over the sound. Pristine (and empty) windswept beaches and rolling dunes covered in swaying sea oats. A place of unparalleled beauty where time seems to slow and where breathtaking beauty envelops the spirit and sets it soaring. This is the off season on the Outer Banks.

So, if you're looking to escape the crowds and find a peaceful vacation in a beautiful spot at the edge of the world, visit the Outer Banks in the off season. It just may be that a sweet escape to our wind-swept coast is exactly the getaway you're looking for.

For more information on a relaxing late summer or fall vacation with Seaside Vacations, please visit www.OuterBanksVacations.com.

About Seaside Vacations:

Founded in Kitty Hawk, North Carolina in 1990, Seaside Vacations is a full-service vacation rental management company representing homes from Corolla to Nags Head.

Seaside Vacations offers a complete selection of Outer Banks vacation rentals. Guests can choose from 1 - 10-bedroom private vacation rental homes, condominiums, townhomes and villas. Explore our homes in Duck and Corolla as well as numerous vacation rentals in Southern Shores, Kitty Hawk, Kill Devil Hills and Nags Head.

For more information on Seaside Vacations and their wide selection of vacation rentals, visit www.OuterBanksVacations.com or call one a Vacation Specialist at 877.346.8231.

###